

Agile Terminology

The following terms are used interchangeably in this course.

Agile XP term	Scrum term	Meaning
Iteration	Sprint	A period of time (less than 30 days in scrum) within which a team build a releasable increment of a product requirements backlog	product backlog	A set of items which describe the features in a product. This usually consists of user stories written on story cards. It can be kept physically or digitally.